

There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us.

1st Reading: 1 Kings 19:4-8
Psalm 33 Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.
2nd Reading: Ephesians 4:30-5:2
Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day.

It is written in the prophets:

They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me.

Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father.

I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life.

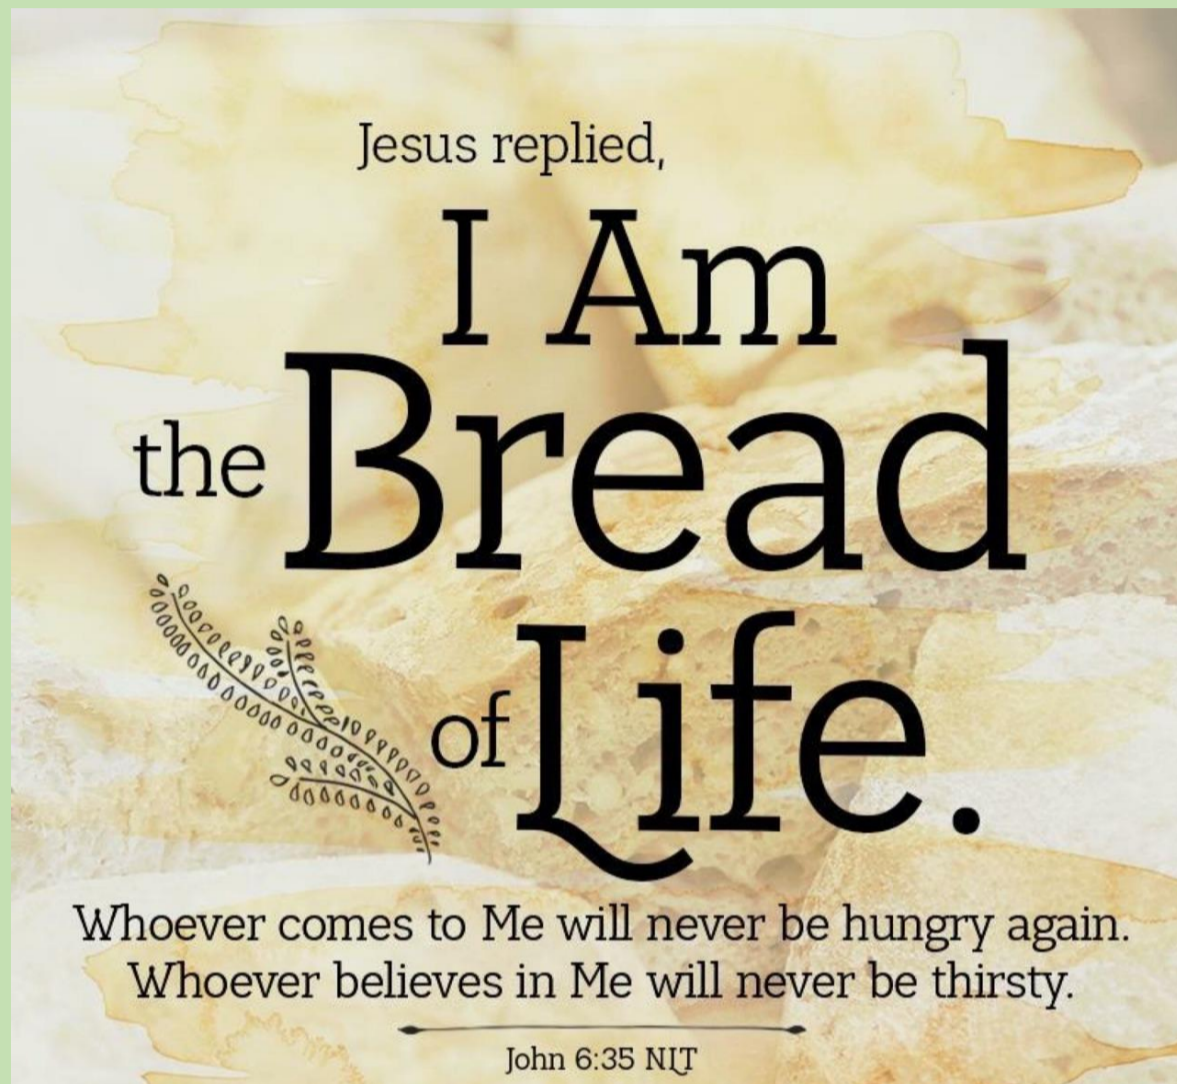

'I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead;

but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die.

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

WHOEVER BELIEVE HAS ETERNAL LIFE.

Throughout John's Gospel many people struggled to understand who Jesus was. Despite the signs he performed, they simply could not believe his claim that he has come from God. Certainly, this claim of Jesus is remarkable. Even scandalous. We need the gift of faith to accept it. Our faith in Jesus, the Bread of Life, is expressed and deepened by our participation in the Eucharist.

Ulm Minster

The highest church building in the world

with Beate Matthies

The construction of Ulm Minster in Southern Germany was started in 1377, and it took several generations of builders to finish. Today, more than 600 years later, it is still considered the highest church building in the world.

What were the circumstances under which the church was built and what are some changes that happened over the centuries?

Join us for a journey through history and amazing architecture.

Beate Matthies is the founder of Titipounamu Study & Joy. She has a background in linguistics, history of art as well as marketing and business.
